

Directory of Gospel Bluegrass Performers and Events

Website Information

This website is intended to promote musical groups that play primarily gospel bluegrass music; it is provided as a service to groups that meet that criteria without charge.

There are two ways performing groups can use this site:

- (1) If you have your own website you can simply provide us with a website address (URL) and we will provide a 'link' to your site
- (2) If you don't have a website you will need to send us (via e-mail or postal service) some sort of write-up on your group which should include a contact person and phone number, a description of your group, and a current schedule of performances (optional). If you submit it on paper it needs to be no larger than letter-size (8.5 by 11) so our scanner can read it. If you e-mail it as an attachment, please send either Microsoft Word or 'plain text' documents (like you would create with Notepad). We can handle multiple-page write-ups but please limit the number of pages to five. It will be your responsibility to keep your information up-to-date; if you are including performance schedules, that probably means sending us a new document fairly often. We will not do any editing of your information - insertions, deletions, etc; we will publish exactly what you send.

If you want to promote an event you can do it the same way as a group without a website would – by sending us the information you want published.

If you want to be included in the directory please submit the information to us by e-mail at mfginfosys@yahoo.com (enter 'bluegrass website' in the subject area) or by mail at the following address: Mike & Marie Miller, 1735 S Van Kal St, Kalamazoo, MI 49009. If you have questions, please send an e-mail or contact us by phone (269)-372-0907.

We would like to thank each of you that play gospel music for the hours of enjoyment that we receive from your performances and CD's and for being willing to use your God-given talents to share the message of the bible with others.

May God's grace, peace and blessings be with each of you.

Mike & Marie Miller
